

THE HERTS FOR LEARNING READING FLUENCY EXPO 2022

THE POWER OF READING FLUENCY INSTRUCTION

Tuesday 4th October, 9:00am – 4:00pm

Accelevents: www.accelevents.com/e/thehertsforlearningreadingfluencyexpo2022

Time	Details	Location
8:45 – 9:00am	Conference registration Pre-recorded 'how to' and navigation	Main stage / lobby
9:00 – 9:10am	Introductions and welcome Kathy Roe, Reading Fluency Project Lead, Herts for Learning	Main stage
9:10 – 9:50am	Talk for reading Pie Corbett, Educational Consultant Jamie Thomas, Talk for Writing and Reading Consultant
9:50 – 10:20am	Shining a spotlight on fluency in secondary schools Sarah Green, Trust Director of Literacy, Prospere Learning Trust and alumni EEF Literacy Content Specialist (2021-22)
10:20 – 10:40am	Break
10:40 – 11:20am	CUSP reading: putting fluency front and centre Alex Bedford, Primary Adviser, Unity Schools Partnership Lauren Meadows, Executive Director of Education, Greenfields and author of the CUSP English curriculum	Main stage
11:20am – 11:50am	Rhyme and rhythm: Foundations for reading Jane Andrews, Teaching & Learning Adviser, Herts for Learning Rickella Griffiths, Teaching & Learning Adviser, Herts for Learning
11:50am – 12:25pm	Putting theory into practice: reading fluency at St Matthew's Sonia Thompson, Headteacher and Director, St Matthew's Research School
12:25 – 1:15pm	Lunch
1:15 – 1:45pm	Teacher professional development to support the teaching of reading fluency: preview of a research project starting this year Dr Sam Sims, Lecturer, UCL	Main stage
1:45 – 2:15pm	Essex Task Force Tony Taylor, Assistant Headteacher, Shenfield Highschool and part of the Essex Task Force Rachel Pritchard, Deputy Headteacher, Lyons Hall Primary School

2:15 – 2:45pm	The role of reading fluency in children’s vocabulary development Michelle Nicholson, Reading Fluency Project Adviser, Herts for Learning
2:45 – 3:00pm	Break
3:00 – 3:45pm	Teaching the fluency development lesson: effective fluency instruction for struggling readers Dr Tim Rasinski, PhD, Professor of Literacy Education, Kent State University	Main stage
3:45 – 4:00pm	Conference close Kathy Roe, Reading Fluency Project Lead, Herts for Learning	